Ethiopians to have a ball in Renton

National soccer gathering ‘is the vehicle of bringing everybody together’

Saturday, July 1, 2017

By EMILY GIAMBALVO

In the middle of an Ethiopian community surrounded by a culture where soccer is king, the Renton Memorial Stadium will become an Ethiopian haven of music, food and dance. For seven days, Renton Memorial Stadium will be surrounded by their culture. For seven days, Renton Memorial Stadium will become an Ethiopian haven of music, food and dance.

The event will draw some 30,000 people with Ethiopian pride. The team name comes from the highest mountain in Ethiopia, Ras Dashen.

STARTING SATURDAY

By JASON ABRAMSON

The event will draw some 30,000 people with Ethiopian pride. The team name comes from the highest mountain in Ethiopia, Ras Dashen.

In the middle of an Ethiopian community surrounded by culture where soccer is king, the Renton Memorial Stadium will become an Ethiopian haven of music, food and dance. For seven days, Renton Memorial Stadium will be surrounded by their culture. For seven days, Renton Memorial Stadium will become an Ethiopian haven of music, food and dance.

The event will draw some 30,000 people with Ethiopian pride. The team name comes from the highest mountain in Ethiopia, Ras Dashen.

In the middle of an Ethiopian community surrounded by culture where soccer is king, the Renton Memorial Stadium will become an Ethiopian haven of music, food and dance. For seven days, Renton Memorial Stadium will be surrounded by their culture. For seven days, Renton Memorial Stadium will become an Ethiopian haven of music, food and dance.

The event will draw some 30,000 people with Ethiopian pride. The team name comes from the highest mountain in Ethiopia, Ras Dashen.

In the middle of an Ethiopian community surrounded by culture where soccer is king, the Renton Memorial Stadium will become an Ethiopian haven of music, food and dance. For seven days, Renton Memorial Stadium will be surrounded by their culture. For seven days, Renton Memorial Stadium will become an Ethiopian haven of music, food and dance.

The event will draw some 30,000 people with Ethiopian pride. The team name comes from the highest mountain in Ethiopia, Ras Dashen.