Whistleblower: White House tried to ‘lock down’ details of call to Ukraine

The White House has been under scrutiny for its handling of a whistleblower complaint about a call between President Donald Trump and the president of Ukraine.

Lawyers say prosecutions could be compromised

The whistleblower, who has not been publicly identified, has raised questions about the White House’s efforts to cover up its dealings with Ukraine.

48 homeowners seek to overturn $41 million verdict

A federal jury in Seattle Awarded $41 million to a homeowner who sued a developer over construction defects.

Boeing tests ignored effects of chaos in the cockpit

The National Transportation Safety Board has released a report detailing Boeing’s testing procedures before the 737 MAX crashes.

Haven't you heard? Burien is having a restaurant boom

Nearly 10 restaurants have opened or are scheduled to open in Burien in the past year.

Safety-board report says Boeing tests ignored effects of chaos in the cockpit

The NTSB report criticizes Boeing for ignoring the effects of chaos in the cockpit.

Sightings of dolphins in Seattle

Dolphins have been spotted swimming near Seattle, including in Elliott Bay.

Intiman Theatre is again in danger of closing

The theater faces financial difficulties and is considering layoffs.

ATF agent’s Nazi tattoo, suit could spurn his cases

The suit filed by a former ATF agent seeks to overturn convictions in multiple cases.

ALLEGED HARASSMENT AND RACIAL BIAS

Lawyers say prosecutions could be compromised

The suit filed by a former ATF agent seeks to overturn convictions in multiple cases.

Safety-board report says Boeing tests ignored effects of chaos in the cockpit

The NTSB report criticizes Boeing for ignoring the effects of chaos in the cockpit.

Haven't you heard? Burien is having a restaurant boom

Nearly 10 restaurants have opened or are scheduled to open in Burien in the past year.

Intiman Theatre is again in danger of closing

The theater faces financial difficulties and is considering layoffs.

ATF agent’s Nazi tattoo, suit could spurn his cases

The suit filed by a former ATF agent seeks to overturn convictions in multiple cases.

ALLEGED HARASSMENT AND RACIAL BIAS

Lawyers say prosecutions could be compromised

The suit filed by a former ATF agent seeks to overturn convictions in multiple cases.